

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Meeting with a life coach!

Learning Outcome

Exchange information about hypothetical situations in written and spoken interactions according to work and social contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about relationships and character traits, and use colloquial expressions.
- I can express wishes and regrets.
- I can use colloquial expressions about time.

Ask your partner:

- What do you think a life coach does?
- Would you go see a life coach? Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa introduces Peter to Amy. She's a life coach.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Amy and I know each other from a class we took a while back about life coaching. It seems we've always been birds of a feather. If only I had had more time and money, I would have continued on with my studies. But Amy was able to find the time and now she's a life coach.
- Peter: Huh? That's very intriguing. Sometimes I wish I had all the time in the world.
- Vanessa: Yeah, and she is going to help me out a little bit. I thought it was high time I got some life advice and when I saw Amy on Friday in the restaurant we talked about it, and now I'm ready to try. We get along so well. I wish we could have gotten together sooner.
- Amy: There is no time like the present.
- Vanessa: No, there isn't. Now, Amy. I know you're pressed for time, so which days of the week are available for you?
- Amy: Tuesdays and Thursdays. You want to meet twice a week? Around 1:30 at my office.
- Vanessa: Perfect!
- Amy: See you Tuesday. And Peter, if you have any free time you should come by and visit as well.
- Vanessa: If only Peter had a life, then he could use a coach.
- Peter: Haha. No one likes her very much.
- Amy: See you later Vanessa. I think we are going to work well together. Bye Peter.
- Peter: Bye. She seems cool.
- Vanessa: She is. I wish I had done something like this a long time ago. So, you were going to tell me about Friday night.
- Peter: You know what, I wish I could remember, but I forgot what I was going to say.

Let's Practice!

Let's understand the wishes and regrets of Vanessa and Sally.

Instructions: Choose the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences. Read the complete sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Words Bank

together / world / ago / money / life

1. If only I had had more time and _____, I would have continued on with my studies.
2. Sometimes I wish I had all the time in the _____.
3. I wish we could have gotten _____ sooner.
4. If only Peter had a _____, then he could use a life coach.
5. I wish I had done something like this a long time _____.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa and Amy talk about their friendship.

Instructions: Proofread the sentence. Circle the incorrect words. Write the correct sentences below. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. Amy and I know each other form a class we took a while bag about life coaching.

2. It seems we've always be birds of a feather.

3. Yeah, and she are going to help me out a little bite.

4. We get along saw well.

5. I think we is going to worked well together.

Extension Activity

Teach time idioms.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- With a partner, research six time idioms you think your classmates might not know.
- Learn their definition, their use and have an example of each one ready.
- Split with your partner and join another group.
- Take turns teaching each other your time idioms.
- Take notes on each new idiom.
- Vote on which idioms are the most useful.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I find six time word idioms.

☐ ☐

I learn the definitions and write examples related to the idiom.

☐ ☐

I present my idioms to my group members clearly and concisely.

☐ ☐

I listen for gist and for detail.

☐ ☐

I give feedback on my favorite idiom.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- find the time (expression): to make time for e.g. Amy was able to find the time.
- no time like the present (expression): used to suggest that something should be done now rather than later e.g. Never hesitate in doing something. There is no time like the present.
- pressed for time (expression): needing time; in a hurry
e.g. I know you're pressed for time.
- free time (noun): time that is free from duties or responsibilities
e.g. And Peter, if you have any free time you should come by and visit.
- high time (noun): a point in time at which something is considered to be due to happen; similar to "it's about time"
e.g. I thought it was high time I got some life advice.
- all the time in the world (expression): an unlimited amount of time
e.g. Sometimes I wish I had all the time in the world.
- birds of a feather (expression): people who think and/or behave in a similar way
e.g. It seems we've always been birds of a feather.

Learning Points

The Unreal Past: Expressing Wishes and Regrets

To talk about the unreal past, you use past tenses to describe hypothetical situations. You use the Past Perfect tense for unlikely or unreal situations in the past or to express wishes and regrets.

When you want to talk about a situation in the present that you regret or would like to change, you use I wish and the Simple Past tense.

Example:

I wish we got along better.

It means that we are not getting along, but it would be nice if we could get along better.

When you want to talk about situations in the past that you regret, you weren't happy about or that you would have liked to change, you use I wish and the Past Perfect tense.

Example:

I wish I had found out about online dating a long time ago.

It means I didn't know about online dating in the past, but it would have been better for me if I had known about it in the past.

Look at the following examples from the text.

Examples:

- Sometimes I wish I had all the time in the world.
- I wish we could have gotten together sooner.
- I wish I had done something like this a long time ago.
- I wish I could remember, but I forgot what I was going to say.

Learning Points

Colloquial Expressions about Time

Colloquial expressions are idioms that you use frequently, especially in spoken English. There are many expressions that refer to time in English.

Colloquial expressions about time can refer to different aspects of time. You can use these to express different ideas related to time.

Here are some colloquial expressions:

Lack of time:

pressed for time

run out of time

no time to lose

Have enough time:

all the time in the world

take your time

make good time

free time

The right time for something:

just in time

in the nick of time

high time

no time like the present

Examples:

- If you have any free time, you should come by and visit as well.
- I know you're pressed for time, so which days of the week are available for you?
- There is no time like the present.
- But Amy was able to find the time and now she's a life coach.
- Sometimes I wish I had all the time in the world.
- I thought it was high time I got some life advice.

